

Galli-Curci Theater to Open With Singer Present

Expected Discharge to The New York Herald-Kingston, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Amelia Galli-Curci, who is building a beautiful mountain home on one of the loftiest peaks in the Catskill Mountains, will be present Friday evening, August 25, at the dedication of Margaretville's new playhouse, which has been under construction for some months, and which has been named the Galli-Curci Theater in honor of the opera star.

The dedication program will include the names of many prominent artists. Mrs. Galli-Curci, a prima donna who has made Margaretville her summer home for a number of years, will appear on the program. The new theater is of modern construction throughout and will seat six hundred. The stage is of ample size to carry a large road show, and the floor of the stage is of hard maple and makes an excellent dance floor when the theater is not used for show purposes.

The annual meeting of the New York State Historical Association will be held at Lake Mohawk on September 25, 27 and 28, and a fine program is being arranged for the session. Supreme Court Justice G. D. B. Harbrouck of Kingston is president of the association. An extensive literary program has been arranged.

The ball held at the Hotel Takamasee, at Fleischmanns, for the benefit of the Home of the Daughters of Jacob of New York, was a huge success and over $1,300 was netted. This afternoon the Belle Ayre Camp at Fleischmanns is staging a pageant for the benefit of the Russian Relief. The pageant is under the direction of Miss Florence Kobosoff, who has already staged several successful productions in the Town Hall.

Mrs. Louise A. Sully's past week lost one of her valuable Jersey cows as a result, she says, of the animal eating paint left upon the grass in her meadows by some of the Woodstock artists. This is the second cow she has lost in the same manner. Mrs. Sully says that members of the artists' colony disregarded her trespass signs and went upon her lands to paint, spilling a quantity of paint upon the grass and later her cow, while pasturing on the lands, ate enough of the paint to poison it.

John Herman Loud, a fellow of the American Guild of Organists and president of the National Association of Organists, is now at Lake Mohawk.

NEW BURLESQUE AT COLUMBIA.

Billy Watson's company will furnish the weekly change of program at the Columbia Theater this week. It will be a burlesque in two acts, called "Krausmeyer's Alley," all of the scenes being laid in New York city. In Watson's support are Billy Spencer, Jules Jacob, Miss Estelle Shaw, the Morette Sisters, Sweeney and Itonev and others.

"THE WORLD IS MINE"

cries the COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO AND NOT ONLY THE WORLD BUT EVERY OTHER NEWSPAPER IN NEW YORK

THE HERALD "Monte Cristo" thrilling as photoplay—Dumas' romance of love, hate and vengeance screened with fine effect—A wealth of pictorial and dramatic detail—One of the real achievements of the modern screen.

THE TIMES "The action of the story is swift, sure and smooth—those who stood with Edmond Dantes at the first showing of 'Monte Cristo' felt its thrill as keenly, perhaps, as any audience ever did at the famous play—scenes impressively set and photographed."

THE SUN "Monte Cristo" is a film of rare pictorial beauty. It is doubtful if any previous film excels it in any respect. It is full of real thrills."

THE NEWS "Monte Cristo" ranks high indeed. As a popular American photoplay, the picture in all probability will be a success."

THE MAIL "The world is 'Monte Cristo'—screen version of the gorgeous melodrama preserves most of its thrills—it is glorious picture stuff, this greatest of adventure romances."—Burns Mantle.

Owing to arrangements previously entered into "Blood and Sand" cannot be retained at the Rialto longer than this week, despite the unprecedented patronage it is attracting. It is gratifying to the management, however, that the public has been quick and generous in its recognition of the extraordinary merits of this superb picture which is, after all, only one of many great Paramount Pictures which will be shown exclusively first run at these theatres during the coming season.
